

IT Information Systems Technician

The main focus of this position is to provide direct user support, install and maintain desktop software and applications, and troubleshoot hardware malfunctions.

An applicant for this position must have proven customer service skills as well as documented work experience installing software and hardware in the networked pc environment.

Central District Health Department runs a hybrid environment of Microsoft and Novell software. Experience with a Novell network environment and GroupWise is a plus.

Salary will range from $13.00 to $16.00 per hour to start DOE. Interested applicants should send their resumes to mross@cdhd.idaho.gov prior to Monday, August 7, 2006